Equities Market Summary

The Nigerian equities market closed on a bearish note on Tuesday, as the All-Share Index (ASI) declined by 0.57% to settle at 196,066.09 points, moderating the year-to-date return to 26.00%. In tandem with the benchmark index, market capitalisation also fell by 0.57%, shedding ₦725 billion to close at ₦125.86 trillion. Investor sentiment remained broadly negative, with market breadth closing at 33 gainers and 42 decliners. Prempaints, Sunuassur, Conoil, Daarcmm, and Eterna Plc led the gainers' chart, while Mbenefit, Ftginsure, Redstarex, Austinlaz, and SCOA recorded the steepest losses. Sectoral performance was largely negative, as the Banking, Consumer Goods, Oil & Gas, and Industrial Goods indices declined by 0.48%, 0.29%, 0.29%, and 0.71%, respectively. Conversely, the Insurance index posted a marginal gain of 0.04%, while the Commodity index remained unchanged. Trading activity weakened, with the number of deals, traded volume, and trading value declining by 25.04%, 2.57%, and 11.74% to 64,829 trades, 734.5 million units, and ₦27.56 billion, respectively.

Money Market

The Nigerian Interbank Offered Rate (NIBOR) recorded mixed movements on Tuesday. Yields declined across the overnight and 1-month tenors by 4bps and 3bps, respectively, while the 3-month and 6-month tenors rose by 6bps and 17bps, respectively, reflecting improved liquidity conditions within the banking system. In the money market, funding rates were also mixed, as the overnight lending rate declined by 12bps to 22.17%, while the Open Repo (OPR) rate remained unchanged at 22.00%.

In the Treasury Bills segment, secondary market yields traded on a mixed note. Yields on the 1-month and 3-month tenors increased by 25bps and 53bps, respectively, while the 6-month and 12-month instruments declined by 3bps and 18bps. As a result, the average NT-Bills yield moderated by 2bps to 17.59%, suggesting a mildly bullish market sentiment supported by improved investor appetite and relatively favourable secondary market conditions.

Bond Market

The Nigerian FGN bond market closed the session on a positive note, with the average yield declining marginally by 1bp to 15.72%. The slight moderation in yields reflects modest investor interest and mild positioning in naira-denominated government securities.

In the external debt market, Nigerian Eurobonds also recorded positive performance, as the average yield declined by 29bps to 7.19%. The decline in yields indicates stronger demand and a more risk-tolerant stance among offshore investors toward Nigeria's dollar-denominated sovereign instruments.

Foreign Exchange Market

The naira appreciated across both exchange channels on Tuesday, appreciating 0.30% to ₦1,401.40/$ at the NAFEM window and increasing 0.33% to ₦1,399/$ in the parallel market.
