Equities Market Summary

The Nigerian equities market reversed course on Friday, with the NGX All-Share Index declining 0.19% to close at 247,357.40 points, pulling the year-to-date return down to +58.96% and erasing ₦305.81 billion from market capitalization, which closed at ₦159.59 trillion. Investor sentiment was positive at a market breadth of 1.3x, as 33 advancers led by CNIF, CILEASING, CORNERST, RTBRISCOE, and HONYFLOUR outpaced 25 decliners, with PRESCO, THOMASWY, TRANSEXP, ROYALEX, and LIVINGTRUST recording the most notable losses. Sectoral performance was mixed, as Insurance (+0.68%) and Consumer Goods (+0.25%) finished in positive territory, while Commodity (-1.25%), Banking (-0.40%), and Oil & Gas (-0.04%) weighed on the index and the Industrial sector ended relatively flat. Trading activity was diverse, as volume and turnover declined 21.45% and 41.47% to 614.55 million shares and ₦32.95 billion respectively, while deal count rose 19.47% to 55,282 transactions. Looking ahead, the market is expected to rebound following recent fluctuations, though profit-taking in recently appreciated counters could temper the pace of any recovery.

Money Market

With system liquidity remaining largely static, the interbank market closed flat on Friday as the overnight NIBOR held at 22.24%. Longer-dated tenors mirrored this stability; the 1-month and 6-month rates remained unchanged, though the 3-month rate eased by 8bps. Meanwhile, funding costs diverged as the Overnight rate slipped 9bps to 22.12% while the Open Repo rate stayed flat at 22.00%.

Concurrently, the Treasury Bills secondary market posted mixed outcomes across maturities. Yields on the 1-month, 6-month, and 12-month papers declined by 2bps, 8bps, and 7bps respectively, while the 3-month bill ticked up 3bps. Sustained trading activity and solid investor appetite ultimately pulled the average NT-Bills yield down by 3bps to 18.10%.

Bond Market

The domestic fixed-income market ended the week on a high note on Friday, driven by strong local demand that pushed average FGN Bond yields down by 2bps to 17.37%.

In contrast, the Eurobond market faced downward pressure, with average yields climbing 3bps to 6.98% as international appetite for Nigeria's dollar-denominated debt cooled.

Foreign Exchange Market

The naira posted a strong rally on Friday, appreciating by 0.42% to settle at ₦1,362.09/$ at the official NAFEM window, while also gaining 0.58% in the parallel market to close at ₦1,369/$.
