Equities Market Summary

The Nigerian equities market opened the week on a positive note on Monday, with the NGX All-Share Index gaining 1.21% to close at 248,529.75 points, pushing the year-to-date return to +59.71% and adding ₦1.91 trillion to market capitalization, which closed at ₦160.42 trillion. Investor sentiment was negative at a market breadth of 0.6x, as 36 decliners led by AVACAP, ETI, CAVERTON, IKEJAHOTEL, and FTNCOCOA outpaced 23 advancers, with FTGINSURE, CHAMS, NAHCO, AIRTELAFRI, and SOVRENINS recording the most notable gains. Sectoral performance was divergent, as Consumer Goods (+0.76%) closed in positive territory, while Insurance (-1.64%), Banking (-0.24%), Oil & Gas (-0.09%), and Industrial (-0.05%) all weighed on the index and the Commodity sector ended flat. Trading activity was diverse, as volume and deal count rose 1.37% and 39.00% to 1.14 billion shares and 59,185 transactions respectively, while turnover dipped 25.11% to ₦27.02 billion. Looking ahead, the market is expected to sustain its bullish trend as investor sentiment tilts increasingly positive, though residual profit-taking activity could temper the pace of any recovery.

Money Market

Nigerian Interbank Offered Rates experienced a mixed session on Monday as the overnight rate rose 4bps to 22.23% despite healthier system liquidity. Conversely, the 1-month, 3-month, and 6-month tenors dropped by 6bps, 18bps, and 20bps, respectively. Funding conditions showed a slight divergence, with the Overnight rate edging down 1bp to 22.09% while the Open Repo rate held steady at 22.00%.

In the Treasury Bills secondary market, yields posted varied performance across maturities as 1-month and 6-month papers advanced by 19bps and 3bps respectively, while the 3-month and 12-month bills declined by 10bps and 3bps. Sustained buying pressure across the curve pulled the average NT-Bills yield down by 3bps to settle at 18.09%, highlighting a prevailing bullish sentiment in the market.

Bond Market

The domestic fixed-income market started the week on a firm note on Monday, driven by strong local demand that pushed average FGN Bond yields down by 2bps to settle at 16.82%.

In contrast, the Eurobond market stumbled to open the week on a weaker footing, with average yields climbing 3bps to 6.91%. This retreat highlighted cooling offshore interest and softer international demand for Nigeria's dollar-denominated sovereign debt.

Foreign Exchange Market

The naira delivered a solid performance on Monday, strengthening by 0.41% to settle at ₦1,360.14/$ in the official NAFEM window while remaining flat at ₦1,389/$ in the parallel market.
